2019 PROGRAM – VOLUNTEER CODE OF CONDUCT

As a participant in any TSS Youth Sailing Program, Inc. activity I will:

- Obey club rules, program rules, program management and staff at all times.
- Respect the instructors and program staff.
- Comply with the instructors' direction and guidance – listen, be cooperative and participate with enthusiasm.
- Be a good ambassador - behave in a manner that honors and promotes the program and the sport.
- Agree to zero tolerance of:
 - Bad language, obscene gestures or clothing displaying improper words or designs.
 - Physical or emotional abuse - fighting, hitting, pushing and any type of bullying.
 - The consumption, possession or supply of any drugs, alcohol, tobacco or any illegal substance.
- Refrain from horseplay. This includes shouting and or running on TSS property, running on, jumping off, or pushing others off the docks, throwing sand, stones, rocks, needless capsizing, intentional boat bumping.
- Remain within the defined boundaries for youth sailing activities on land and water.
- Wear a life jacket and appropriate water shoes at all times on, around or near the docks, launch areas and the water.
- Treat all TSS property with care:
 - Keep the clubhouse, bathrooms, docks and club grounds clean and tidy – pick up trash
 - Treat the club boats and sailing equipment with care: avoid loss or damage by being responsible, attentive and mindful, stow all boats neatly, return all equipment to its appropriate place after use and report any loss or damage to any equipment to an instructor

Volunteers participating in this class must be attentive and cooperative and must follow directions. Volunteers participate in this class at the discretion of the lead instructor and the TSS Youth Sailing Inc. Board. The Volunteer agrees to abide by all the rules of TSS Youth Sailing Inc. and understands that failure to observe and obey such rules may result in the Volunteer's dismissal for violating the Code of Conduct as stated above.
